State Board of Higher Education

Created by constitutional amendment in 1939, the State Board of Higher Education (<https://ndus.edu/sbhe-overview/>) is the governing body of North Dakota State University and all other state supported institutions of higher education in North Dakota. The board's chief executive officer is the chancellor of the North Dakota University System, with offices in the state capitol in Bismarck. More information regarding the State Board of Higher Education, including members, can be found on the website.
