Student Policies

NDSU, the North Dakota University System, and the State Board of Higher Education have numerous policies and procedures that apply to students, faculty, and staff. The NDSU Policy Manual (<http://www.ndsu.edu/policy>) is available online and includes, among others, the following policies that pertain to students:

- Anti-Harassment Policy (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/163.pdf>)
- Campus Security (http://www.ndsu.edu/police_safety/police/annualsecurityreport)
- Email Policy (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/609.pdf>)

- Equal Opportunity Policy (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/100.pdf>)
- Privacy of Student Records (<http://www.ndsu.edu/bisonconnection/ferpa>)
- Sexual Harassment Policy (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/162.pdf>)
- Sexual Assault Student Policy (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/603.pdf>)
- Use of Alcohol and Other Drugs (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/policy/155.pdf>)

Code of Student Behavior

"Rights and Responsibilities of Community: A Code for Student Behavior" (<http://www.ndsu.edu/fileadmin/studentlife/StudentCode.pdf>), published by the Office of the Dean of Student Life (http://www.ndsu.edu/student_life/studentlifepage), is the document that sets forth expectation of student behavior at NDSU.

The University Provost (<http://www.ndsu.edu/provost>) has established a procedure for students to file a formal grievance (http://www.ndsu.edu/provost/student_grievances) regarding the University's provision of educational and academic services claiming a violation of a University rule, policy, or established practice that affects a student's education.

A student may also file a written student complaint (http://www.ndsu.edu/vpsa/forms_and_guidelines) concerning a college or university issue alleging improper, unfair, or arbitrary treatment. Academic complaints may be submitted in writing/email to the Provost or the Vice President for Student Affairs (<http://www.ndsu.edu/vpsa>) for non-academic matters. The purpose of the procedure is to provide an orderly collection of information, address students' complaints in a timely manner by appropriate university personnel, and help students learn effective conflict resolution skills.

Be aware that the University has already established specific procedures for the following and student academic grievances would not include the following:

- University employment
- Disciplinary action under the Code of Student Life
- Grade disputes/appeals
- University admission decisions
- Billing and student accounts

Guidelines have been established to assist students in stating the problem and desired problem resolution and are available from either the Vice President for Student Affairs or the Dean of Student Life (http://www.ndsu.edu/student_life/studentlifepage) office. Students also may arrange a meeting with Student Rights and Responsibilities (http://www.ndsu.edu/student_rights) at any time during the process for advice and direction in resolving the problem.
