

Therapeutic Horsemanship

- ANSC 210 Introduction to Therapeutic Horsemanship may be substituted for SPED 320 Educational Services for Children with Exceptionalities (MSUM) as a prerequisite for SPED 419

Therapeutic Horsemanship Minor

The Therapeutic Horsemanship minor offers students from any major who possess basic horseback riding skills an opportunity to pursue their Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International instructor certification. This 16-credit experiential learning program focuses on concepts of equine assisted activities and therapies, horse management, knowledge of disabilities, and the application of skills needed to become a Therapeutic Horsemanship Instructor.

Minor Requirements

Therapeutic Horsemanship Minor

Minor Requirements

Required Credits: 18

Required Courses

NDSU Courses:
ANSC 210	Introduction to Therapeutic Horsemanship	3
ANSC 260L	Equine Care and Management Practicum	1
ANSC 261	Basic Equitation & Horsemanship	1
ANSC 310	Principles of Therapeutic Horsemanship Instruction	3
ANSC 361	Intermediate Horsemanship	1
ANSC 410	Therapeutic Horsemanship Teaching Practicum	1
MSUM Courses:
PE 320	Anatomical Kinesiology	3
Choose one of the following courses from MSUM:		3
SPED 419	Biomedical Aspects of Physical/Health Disabilities
SPED 417	Educating Students with Severe Disabilities
First Aid & CPR Certification
HNES 210	First Aid and CPR	2
HLTH 125	First Aid and CPR (MSUM)
American Red Cross First Aid and CPR Certification at a Local Chapter. *
American Heart Association First Aid and CPR Certification at a Local Chapter. *
Total Credits		18

* Students completing First Aid and CPR through Local Chapters must present their certification to the department of Animal Science for verification of this certification. The department, along with the student, will complete a waiver form to submit to the Office of Registration and Records as record of the completion of these requirements for the minor.

Minor Requirements and Notes:

- A minimum of 8 credits must be taken at NDSU.
- Students must earn a 2.50 minimum GPA for the minor requirements.