

Department of Human Development and Family Science

www.ndsu.edu/hdfs

The mission of the Department of Human Development and Family Science (HDFS) is to provide a comprehensive, integrated knowledge of families and individuals across the life span that will equip students for careers in the helping professions and to enter graduate programs. The curriculum emphasizes practical application, acknowledging individuals and families as developing and changing entities within a larger societal context.

Human Development and Family Science (<http://bulletin.ndsu.edu/past-bulletin-archive/2014-15/undergraduate/colleges/human-development-education/human-development-family-science/human-development-family-science>)

Elementary Education & HDFS Child Development Option Dual Degree Program (<http://bulletin.ndsu.edu/past-bulletin-archive/2014-15/undergraduate/colleges/human-development-education/human-development-family-science/child-development-elementary-education-dual-degree-program>)

Social Work & HDFS Family Science Option Dual Degree Program (<http://bulletin.ndsu.edu/past-bulletin-archive/2014-15/undergraduate/colleges/human-development-education/human-development-family-science/family-science-social-work-dual-degree-program>)