

Department of Human Development and Family Science

Department Information

- www.ndsu.edu/hdfs

Undergraduate Programs of Study

- Human Development and Family Science (major, minor)
- Human Development and Family Science & Elementary Education (major)
- Human Development and Family Science & Social Work (major)

Graduate Programs of Study

- Family and Consumer Science Education

Degrees Offered

- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)
- Bachelor of Science (B.S.)
- Master of Science (M.S.)
- Master of Education (M.Ed.)

Department Description

The mission of the Department of Human Development and Family Science (HDFS) is to provide a comprehensive, integrated knowledge of families and individuals across the life span that will equip students for careers in the helping professions and to enter graduate programs. The curriculum emphasizes practical application, acknowledging individuals and families as developing and changing entities within a larger societal context.